CULTIVATING SOULS

It's more than just grass.

Establishing a small sod farm at our Vapor Ministries Togoville center in West Africa holds significant importance in ensuring the sustainability of our facilities and promoting financial prudence. By cultivating our own sod, we can maintain the facility grounds without the recurring need to purchase new sod, allowing us to allocate resources more efficiently.

This initiative is closely tied to our discipleship programs, where the facility grounds serve as a sacred space for nurturing the spiritual growth of hundreds of children, youth, and adults. The soccer pitch provides a place for them to play the game they love and learn about the One who loves them. Your partnership provides the physical foundation for cultivating souls in West Africa.
